

The Rewards of Volunteering

As a volunteer you can help by providing direct care services. Or, in the capacity of bereavement volunteer you may provide emotional and practical support for grieving family members. Still other volunteers serve in special ways and on special projects.

Whatever form of volunteer service you provide, you realize the joy that comes with giving to others.

Serving the Grieving Child, Caring Parents and Supportive Teachers

Our Footprints Grief Center is a very special place... open to all in the community whether or not other hospice services have been or are presently in use. Services extend from anticipatory grief support for children who will be affected by an impending loss to post-loss support.

Pawprints

Pawprints is Hospice of Metro Denver's Animal Assisted Therapy program. Specially trained human-animal teams, in conjunction with the therapeutic skills of a hospice social worker, are utilized to assist with symptom management (i.e. pain control and anxiety) as well as to facilitate the release and/or expression of an individual's thoughts, feelings, or emotions. Our Pawprints program is available in every aspect of hospice care (home care, inpatient settings, and bereavement.)
