Speakers and Topics Include:

Records Management in a Fiercely Competitive Acquisition and Divestiture Arena

In the competitive acquisition & divestiture arena, having the right information is everything. This class will take a practical look at what land management professionals should know to successfully manage this challenging process.

Speaker: Carol Hartnagle, President of the Mile High Denver Chapter of the Association of Records Managers & Administrators (ARMA) International

I Am Not a Lawyer, But I Play One on the Telephone

Our speaker will share real-life examples of what can happen when we go beyond our role as company representatives and try to give well-meaning advice to landowners.

Speaker: Curt Horne, Business Development Manager, CourthouseDirect.com

Lease Maintenance Issues

Does the shut-in royalty clause allow you to shut in an oil well? Does a drilled but not completed well perpetuate the lease? What constitutes production in paying quantities?

Speaker: Lamont Larsen, Partner in the Energy Group, Davis Graham & Stubbs LLP

Engagement and Advocacy: Connecting with Our Stakeholders

Understanding community concerns and knowing how to address difficult topics relating to urban energy development is important.

Speakers: Robin Olsen, Public Affairs Manager, Rockies Division, and Elizabeth Smith, Stakeholder Relations Representative, Anadarko Petroleum Corporation

National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) in the Rockies

Utilizing the hotly contested & debated lease cancellation issues, this presentation will focus on the requirements of NEPA and its applicability to oil & gas leases. The interplay of the BLM, the oil & gas industry, environmental groups, Congress & local governments is complex. The dynamics at issue are significant whether considering triggering NEPA, complying with NEPA or the delayed impact of NEPA.

Speaker: Meredith Wegener, Director, Graduate Energy Programs & Assistant Professor, Oklahoma City University, Meinders School of Business

This event qualifies for 6 CPLTA & CDOA credits and 5 RL, RPL & CPL credits
1 Ethics credit pending
